

TalkCampus is here!

Student life can be incredibly tough for anybody, it can feel lonely, overwhelming and sometimes just suck.

And let's admit it, that can be pretty tough to say out loud. TalkCampus is here for everyone and anyone who just needs someone to talk to. Who just needs someone to listen. Because hey, we all do.

We're here for the moments when you just need a friend, no matter where they are. We're here when you're looking for someone who just understands what you're going through (because someone always does). Sure, life is full of highs and lows. But it's full of highs and lows for each and every one of us so why do we always try to go it alone? At TalkCampus we've created a place where we can all work through life together, because everything is better together. Everything. Peanut butter and jelly have proven this for like, at LEAST eight decades now.

So get on TalkCampus and talk to students going through the exact same struggles you are all around the world any time of day or night. We know that sometimes it's sort of hard to talk about certain things with family, or even friends. This is a safe place where you can talk anonymously about anything; mental health, depression, self-harm, eating disorders, a bad break-up or a relationship, stress and studies...it doesn't matter. If you want to talk about it, someone else does too. No judgements. No bullying, just people who get you.

So come join us and download TalkCampus for free today and make right now and everything after it a little bit better. Let's talk and figure this life thing out together.
